GIFTED LEADERSHIP SERVICES LIMITED

Gifted Leadership Services is a registered company in Hong Kong which organizes and delivers leadership conferences for students from a range of international schools around the world.

Our conference program fosters an understanding of the four foundational prerequisites to youth leadership: intercultural consciousness, leadership skills, leadership theory, and student voice. Our mission is to train our delegates to become better leaders through finding their own leadership styles, understanding the ethical dimensions of leadership, and improving interpersonal and problem solving skills.

THE 6TH INTERNATIONAL STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

The 2012 Conference will be held at Renaissance College, an English Schools Foundation school in Hong Kong, and will target exceptional students in Years 10-12 from all over the world.

This year's conference theme, Creat-I-Vision, explores the importance of creativity and vision in leadership, the characteristics of creative leadership and the nature of the creative and visionary process. This year, all delegates will be assigned a stakeholder group and are required to devise a design proposal underscored by a commitment to social justice and environmental responsibility. In completing this design brief, delegates will need to incorporate and draw on aesthetic, rhetorical, artistic, technological, logistical and ethical dimensions.

Guest speakers from a variety of backgrounds will bring their professional expertise to bear on the issue of creativity and facilitate a deeper understanding of how they have developed creative approaches in their professional lives. In addition, the conference program introduces delegates to a range of leadership models and frameworks, before asking them to apply and integrate these theoretical concepts and principles to a variety of fictitious scenarios.

Hong Kong: World City, World Conference

The divergence and convergence of Chinese traditions and British cultural heritage in Hong Kong underscores a uniquely multi-cultural context for ISLC 2012.

Hong Kong is both a friendly and safe city. During the half-day excursion, delegates will avail themselves of Hong Kong's efficient public transportation. Open flea markets are a must see during free time in the evenings and the food in Hong Kong also reflects its international culture. Try some authentic Chinese Dim Sum, some Japanese Sushi, a mouth-watering South Indian Thali, as well as an array of Western cuisines.

Outside the formal conference setting, delegates will spend a great deal of time together experiencing the dynamism of a teeming metropolis and unique local building heritage. In the process, we trust that delegates will develop ongoing friendships with each other through informal social settings such as our excursion to the Hong Kong Space/History Museum, dinner at a local Chinese restaurant, and laser show at the iconic Victoria Harbour.

Other places delegates may wish to visit include:

Journey on the Peak Tram

The historic Peak Tram is the only way to truly experience the beauty of Hong Kong's natural wonders. The tram takes passengers up a steep ascent to The Peak, where delegates can witness a stunning 360-degree panoramic view of Hong Kong city and the harbour.

Ferry trip across Victoria Harbour

The cross-harbour ferry from Tsim Sha Tsui to Central is a major mode of transport in Hong Kong; many local residents prefer it to the metro for both its speed and the scenic ride. The Star Ferry Company has run the service for more than 120 years.

Shopping at Ladies' Market

The Ladies' Market in Mong Kok is an open-air market famous for cheap trinkets, accessories, clothes, electronics and just about everything else. Delegates can experience the excitement of local market culture and pick up a bargain along the way.

Tsim Sha Tsui

Tsim Sha Tsui is a vast business, tourist, and commercial district in Hong Kong. Amongst other things, visit any one of three major shopping malls, the Kowloon Mosque, the famous Peninsula Hotel, walk along the Avenue of Stars, or visit the Hong Kong Cultural Centre.
